THE BIG EVENT

Here is the schedule for the day.
Make sure to leave with plenty of time.
There will be heavy TRAFFIC due to events taking place at Staples, Nokia, and USC!

*Please come dressed in your costume and have very little with you.
There will not be an area to store your stuff and do not leave your stuff unattended as it poses a security threat. Therefore, be prepared to either keep it with you or hand it to your family or friends who are watching.

11am - 1pm: Newbie practice

For first time learners or those who would like lots of practice.

* Media table opens and all media is encouraged to arrive by 2pm.

2pm: Call time for all participants

2-4pm: Prep time and small group practices

4pm: Registration closed. All zombies must go get ready.

(You can touch up your make-up or have your last restroom break at this time)

5pm: Final run through. Zombies must remain on the dance area until Thrill Time.

5:30pm: Thrill Time!!!!!!!

6:30pm: Event ends

*4:00pm is when registration closes because there is important administrative stuff that needs to be done.

Parking and Alternates

There is timed parking:

$5 for 1st 2 hours, $5 each additional ½ hour until max of $25.

Event parking is $25 in the West Lot.

There are many private lots in the area, some lower some more than ours. The lower priced lots are farther away. The map below shows all parking lots.

Public Transportation Options:

Many MTA bus lines go by Staples Center.

The Metro Blue Line's Pico Station is block away

Red Line's 7th & Metro station is only a few blocks away.

Please note that the DASH Weekend trams only run until 5 p.m.

Check www.MTA.net for schedules and routes.

Costume, Make-Up Tips, and What to Bring

Have fun and be creative when making your Hollywood Zombie costume for Thrill The World.

Try to view the original Thriller video to observe the zombies' costumes, hair, make-up and facial expressions for more ideas.

Prepare your costume PRIOR to arriving to Thrill The World.

There will not be enough time to cut and dirty your costume on site!

TIPS FOR YOUR HOLLYWOOD ZOMBIE COSTUME:

1. Go to thrift shops or rummage through your old clothes.
 2. Cover as much of your body as possible with clothing since this will require less zombie make-up.
 3. Wear dark colored, burial clothing. Unless you died somewhere where you did not receive a proper burial in a suit and coffin.
 4. Our theme is Hollywood Style, as though you were going out on the town or to a red carpet event or you can also be a dead celebrity!
 5. Add dirt, marks, and torn holes to your costume. Use dirt, black marker, black/brown shoe polish. Cut or tear your costume with a scissor, knife, or run over your suit with a car to leave tire tracks!!
 6. Appear as though you've risen from the dead.
 7. Wear comfortable, dark shoes that you can dance in for a few hours. Heels? Not so much.
 8. Add baby powder to your clothes and hair to appear dusty.

TIPS FOR YOUR ZOMBIE MAKE-UP & HAIR:

You will have a short amount of time to do your hair, make-up and eat before we perform.

- Ensure that your make-up does not obstruct your vision. No masks.
 - For your hair: hairspray it up, tease it, wear a wig, go crazy!
 - Add baby powder to your hair to look gray or on to your clothes to look dusty. Do NOT get it on the floor because it makes the floor slippery = safety hazard.
 - For makeup: use theatrical makeup, or regular makeup: dark eyeshadows under your eyes, red lipstick for "blood", pale foundation, eyeliners, fake blood.
 - No drippy fake blood. No blood capsules.
 - If using a lot of makeup, make sure to moisturize well first, as this will make removal of makeup easier, and will make sure your skin isn't damaged.
 - Bring baby wipes and/or facewash, small towel, and change of clothes, like fresh socks for after the show.

Inner City Arts (our charity)

This year, Thrill the World Los Angeles is raising money for a local non-profit. Our charity partner, Inner City Arts (www.inner-cityarts.org) is an oasis of learning, achievement and creativity for children living in the heart of Skid Row. ICA's program is widely regarded as one of the nation's most effective arts education providers, and is a vital partner in the work of creating a safer, healthier Los Angeles.

Gifts of all sizes are crucial to the success of their mission and you can help in two main ways.

1) Go to www.tinyurl.com/supportICA and give a donation

- a. $13 will pay for a kid to perform at the Clippers Game (we have 30 kids dancing)
- b. You can also give any amount you would like. Any amount will help these kids.
- c. Please pass this link along to your friends and family.
- d. You can also bring cash with you to the event and drop it off at the ICA booth.

2) Bring one of the supplies below and drop it off at the table on October 24th.

These are all 'voluntary' donations.

Thank You!

From Thrill the World Los Angeles Team

Thank you for being a part of the 3rd annual Thrill The World. We believe that Michael Jackson would have been honored by the hundreds of us that danced in Los Angeles and the thousands that danced with us around the world. We hope this event showed you that anything is possible. Anyone can dance, especially those who don't think they can, and people from every part of L.A. can unite to share the fun and joy of dancing together. Whatever your dream or passion we encourage you pursue it, and thank you for sharing in our dream.

Now go Rock On!

From Ines Markelle

Creator & Director of Thrill The World

Thank you for being a part of the 3rd annual Thrill The World: a worldwide simultaneous dance of Michael Jackson's "Thriller." ...couldn't have done it without you... making a difference... thanks to people like you, make a dream come true of seeing the world dance together. Hope you pursue your dreams and you keep dancing or know that now you can dance.

Yours in dance & joy,

Ms. Ines Markelle
